

Glasgow Weekly Times.

CLARK H. GREEN:

"ERROR CEASES TO BE DANGEROUS, WHEN REASON IS LEFT FREE TO COMBAT IT."—JEFFERSON.

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Volume 11.

GLASGOW, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1850.

Number 36.

GLASGOW WEEKLY TIMES

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.
Office on Water Street, Up Stairs, next door to the Glasgow House.

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.
For one year, if paid in advance, $2 00
If not paid before the end of the year, 3 00
CLUBS.
5 copies 1 year in advance, 9 00
10 " " " " " " " " 15 00
20 " " " " " " " " 25 00
25 " " " " " " " " 28 00
30 " " " " " " " " 30 00

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.
One square, (12 lines or less) One Dollar for the first, and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Liberal deductions made to Merchants and others who advertise by the year.

JOE PRINTING.
Of every description, executed with neatness and dispatch, on reasonable terms.

JUSTICES' BLANKS AND BLANK DEEDS.
Neatly executed, kept constantly on hand, and for sale low.

AGENTS FOR THIS PAPER.
V. B. PALMER, the American Newspaper Agent, is the only authorized Agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia, and is duly empowered to take advertisements and subscriptions at the rates as required by us. His receipts will be regarded as payments. His offices are—Boston, Scollay's Buildings; Philadelphia, N. W. corner Third and Chestnut streets. N. York Tribune buildings.

Agents—Andrew J. Herndon.
Huntsville—W. K. Samuel, G. H. Burckhart.
Bloomington—Thomas G. Sharp.
Lincoln—H. WILKESON.
Cambridge—JOHN H. GROVE.

F. W. DIGGES DR. T. H. GRAVES

F. W. Digges & Co.
WHOLESALE & RETAIL DRUGGISTS
(Corner Market and 1st street.)
GLASGOW, MO.

B. H. SMITH,
Attorney at Law,
TRENTON, GRUNDY CO. MO.

WILL promptly attend to all business, entrusted to his care, in the Courts of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit. no13.

G. H. Burckhart,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Huntsville, Mo.
Will practice law in the counties of Randolph, Christian, Howard, Boone, Monroe, Adair and Schuyler. All business entrusted to him will receive his prompt attention.
Office in the 2d story above McCampbell & Coates' store.
Oct 24-34.

ROBT. T. FERRITT, JNO. W. HENRY.

Prewitt & Henry.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Fayette, Mo.
Will attend to all business entrusted to them in Howard, and the counties adjoining. Particular attention paid to collecting.
Office in Crigler's frame building two doors above the Receiver's Office.
Nov. 15, 1849—y.

Charles B. Fallenstein,
GLASGOW, MO.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS.
Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes.
BONNETS AND INDIA RUBBER GOODS, HARDWARE, CARPETS, READY MADE CLOTHING, &c.
Front Street, Glasgow, Mo.

St. Louis Millinery Rooms,
62, Market Street, Up Stairs, ST. LOUIS, MO.

SLOPER & RIMMER, Importers and dealers of French Millinery, would respectfully inform the Ladies, they are prepared to offer any article in their line at the lowest possible prices, and of the latest and most approved styles, being in receipt of patterns monthly.

The greatest attention is paid to written orders, that persons at a distance may feel perfect confidence in sending to their House.
Straws and Leghorns cleaned, dyed and altered, and every article of mourning goods supplied at the shortest notice.
St. Louis, August 23, 1849—25—9m

Livery stable.
NEW ADMINISTRATION.

EMERSON & HANDLEY would respectfully inform the public that they have purchased of the Messrs. ARNOLD their entire establishment, and are now prepared to accommodate both citizens and strangers, with every description of vehicle, and good saddle horses, at a moment's notice.
The additions we are making in new carriages, Buggies, and fine horses, (none other kept,) will enable us to furnish "turn outs," equal in style and comfort to any establishment in the State. We are also prepared, at all times, to attend on pleasure parties, and to convey steamboat passengers to any point they may desire to go.
By strict attention to the wants of the community, and a fixed determination to deserve the patronage which has been so liberally bestowed upon our predecessors, we feel assured that our efforts to please, will be appreciated by a generous community.
A Hearse and Carriages will at all times be in readiness to attend funerals, either in the City or country.
Glasgow, Nov. 15, 1849—37-ly.

JOHN W. LUKS, JOHN JENNINGS

Luke & Jennings.
PRODUCE BROKERS.

Commission and Forwarding Merchants,
Commercial Street, St. Louis, Mo.
Between Vine Street and Washington Avenue.

REFERENCES.

Messrs. ROE & KIRKREYAL, St. Louis.
J. & E. WALSH, " "
CHOUTEAU & VALLE, " "
HARRIS & CO., Glasgow.
J. W. HARRIS & CO., Glasgow.
PENNY & BARTHOLOMEW, " "

St. Louis, January 17, 1850—ly *

The Triumphant success of the great Arabian

Remedy for Man and Beast.

H. G. FARRELL'S

CELEBRATED

ARABIAN LINIMENT,

Is causing counterfeits to spring up all over the country, spreading their baneful influence over the land, robbing the pockets of the honest and unsuspecting, by imposing upon them worthless and poisonous trash, for the genuine H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Fellow citizens! Look well before you buy, and see that the label of the bottle has the letters H. G. before Farrell's, for if it has not, it is a counterfeit. The label around each bottle of all my liniment reads thus, "H. G. Farrell's Celebrated Arabian Liniment," and my signature is written upon the label also, and these words are blown in the glass bottle, "H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, Peoria."

This truly great medicine still goes on, conquering disease, and snatching many a poor powerless victim from the grave. By its powerful, stimulating, penetrating and Anodyne qualities, it restores the use of limbs which have been palsied for years; and by its singular power of reproducing the Synovial Fluid of Joint water, it cures all diseases of the Joints with surprising rapidity. For Rheumatism, and affections of the Spine and Spleen, it has proved itself a specific; and for affections of the Lungs, Liver and Kidneys it is a most valuable and powerful auxiliary; also, for all diseases of the Glands, Scrofula, Gout or Swelled Neck, &c. &c. And indeed for almost any disease where an external application is required, this medicine stands unparalleled.

From the Hon. Peter Minard, one of the oldest Settlers in Illinois.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the virtues of your great medicine. One of my blooded horses had a swelling over the cap of the knee, about the size of a hen's egg. Some said it was a strain, and some, that it was the joint water from the knee, and could not be cured. I tried oil cedar on it, and all the liniments and ointments; and they did no more good than water. I then by persuasion of my friends, tried H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, and I was happy to find it take effect after a few days, and it finally cured the noble animal entirely. I think it is decidedly the greatest liniment for horse as well as human flesh, I ever knew.

[Esq. Boker, of New Canton, Illinois, says:]

Mr. H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment has cured some bad cases here, which every other remedy had failed in; one was a white swelling and contracted cords in the leg of a boy twelve years old. The leg had withered away, and was so contracted that he had no use of it. Three doctors had tried their skill upon it in vain, and he was fast sinking to the grave, when the boy's father was induced to try H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Before the first bottle was used up he came into Mr. B's store, and the first words he said were, "Mr. Barker, I want all that Liniment you have in the store; the one bottle I got did my boy more good than all that had ever been done before. That boy is now well and hearty, and has free use of his legs. It is good for sprains, bruises, cuts, burns and swellings."

Being fully satisfied that H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment is the best medicine in the world, I cheerfully recommend it. I had been afflicted for 16 years with a most severe pain in my breast and shoulders, which was so bad that I could hardly do any work at all, and would often have to lie in bed for two weeks at a time with it. I used your liniment on it, and it cured me sound and well. I had, at the time of using your liniment, one of the worst coughs ever I had in my life; and it cured that too. I rubbed it in well over my breast and shoulders. It is also excellent for frost-bitten feet, sores, swellings, sore throat, mange, erysipelas, &c.

ISAAC CLAYTON.

Manufactured only by H. G. Farrell, inventor, and proprietor, and wholesale drugist, No 17 Main Street, Peoria, Ill., to which all communications must be addressed; and for sale by O. Henderson, Glasgow; H. Blaisley & Co. St. Louis.
Call and get a Farrier Book, free of charge. Sept. 5, 1850—3m.

The Celebrated Graefenberg

Vegetable Pills.

WERE introduced into the United States in the year 1846. Their extraordinary virtues, and superiority over all other Pills known in this country, has established them as the standard Medicine of the day.
For sale, together with the other valuable preparations of the Graefenberg Company, by E. K. WOODWARD, St. Louis.
H. W. SMITH, Glasgow.
WM. R. SNELSON, Fayette.
J. W. WHITE, Roanoke.

Also, for sale, the Graefenberg Manual of Health, a complete and valuable treatise, containing information relative to the treatment of almost every form of disease—about 200 pages; price 50 cents.

N. B.—A family newspaper will be given free of charge, for one year, to all who purchase Graefenberg medicines.
May 9, 1850.

Furniture! Furniture!!

The subscriber would respectfully give notice that his stock of Furniture and Upholstery is immensely large and complete, and would invite all his old friends and customers as well as all others wishing bargains, to call and examine.
JOHN I. ELLET.
sep 12, No 50, Market St. St. Louis.

Beaver Hats.

GENTLEMEN will bear in mind that I have a few hats left of the kind I spoke of last, which I offer at another deduction. I am determined to push them off cost or no cost. aug 20
C. B. FALLEENSTEIN.

Whitewash for Fences.—One ounce white vitrol, (sulphate of zinc) three ounces of common salt, to every three or four pounds of good, fresh lime, it is said, renders it very durable, exposed to weather.

Congressional Election—oficial.

FIRST DISTRICT.

	1848.	1850.
Bowling	516	717
Cook	516	717
C. Girardeau	1101	516
Dunklin	90	92
Jefferson	581	245
Madison	494	136
Mississippi	279	161
New Madrid	246	423
Oregon	974	1
Perry	527	224
Reynolds	206	13
Ripley	220	27
St. Francois	307	316
St. Genevieve	336	183
St. Louis	4340	3946
Scott	254	210
Shannon	111	46
Stoddard	479	143
Wayne	562	104
Butler	170	28

10312 9775 5317 5000 7145

SECOND DISTRICT.

	1848.	1850.
Bay	332	234
Porter	692	820
Franklin	384	300
Franklin	914	328
Gasseno	436	84
Lincoln	726	625
Marion	754	926
Montgomery	216	414
Oange	605	156
Pike	901	867
Pulaski	399	110
Ralla	393	425
St. Charles	670	621
Texas	250	71
Warren	350	374
Washington	532	599

8894 6088 8578 6850

THIRD DISTRICT.

	1848.	1850.
John Miller	707	1221
John Miller	375	64
John Miller	656	450
John Miller	289	287
John Miller	732	878
John Miller	792	204
John Miller	990	864
John Miller	258	123
John Miller	534	418
John Miller	613	334
John Miller	600	809
John Miller	435	201
John Miller	619	174
John Miller	451	69
John Miller	651	677
John Miller	529	154
John Miller	393	286
John Miller	356	203

9754 7417 2411 6554 8578

FOURTH DISTRICT.

	1848.	1850.
Samuel	265	70
Andrew	959	335
Atchison	203	87
Buchanan	179	569
Caldwell	248	80
Corroll	468	208
Clay	578	70
Clinton	273	239
Davies	601	126
De Kalb	212	22
Gentry	489	99
Grundy	256	127
Harrison	132	90
Holt	309	138
Linn	443	173
Livingston	444	169
Mercer	315	97
Nodaway	323	47
Platte	1600	653
Putnam	770	420
Ray	355	56
Sullivan	355	56

10870 4003 5600 3820 5505

FIFTH DISTRICT.

	1848.	1850.
Derry	365	78
Rata	373	146
Benton	495	232
Cedar	389	103
Cave	550	277
Dade	364	128
Dallas	400	92
Greene	999	465
Henry	290	305
Hickory	377	74
Jackson	1020	731
Jasper	344	179
Johnson	550	392
Lafayette	565	593
Lawrence	411	187
McDonald	768	150
Newton	288	275
Ozark	360	275
Polk	294	252
Saline	518	537
St. Clair	402	145
Taney	467	49
Wright	389	58

17062 5448 586 8308 1932 5609

For the Times.

THE WHIG PARTY—NO. 3.

Mr. Editor: Having glanced, in my preceding article, at the claims of the two old and distinguished whigs, Messrs. Bates and Geyer, of St. Louis, upon the considerate regard of the Whig party of Missouri, for the approaching United States Senatorial contest, it would seem to be an act of simple justice, to mention in this connection, other names not unknown to the people of the State, by reason of their services and devotion to the interests of the same great political party.

There is, indeed, one other name in St. Louis, which surely ought not to be passed over in silence. I refer to that of Hamilton R. Gamble. Never noted as a brawling politician and certainly never have sought public distinction, he has been, notwithstanding, through life, now somewhat advanced, a sterling and uncompromising whig. But politics has never been his trade. He has never stooped to petty duplicity and contemptible cunning to secure a partisan selfish end. Emigrating from Virginia to Missouri, near about the time of her admission into the Union as a State, and embarking with his whole soul, into the study and practice of the Law, he has never served in any official capacity, outside of his profession, except as a member of our State Legislature, and then, only for a single session. His head, consequently, has never been seen in a conspicuous way, in public life; still, firm and unyielding in his political sentiments, he has all the while been building up a name, in his profession, which may now appropriately challenge comparison with that of any other lawyer of the same age in our extended union. He is, therefore, not without his just claims upon Missouri whigery for the highest office within their power to bestow.

Mr. James S. Rollins of Boone, younger in years, and less distinguished in the legal profession, has nevertheless a very strong hold upon the popular affections of the State. Repeatedly a member of both branches of our State Legislature, he has been more conspicuous as a whig politician. Unflinching in his attachment to the whig party, he has borne aloft the banner of whig principle in every hour of exigency and trial. How he has acquitted himself is too well known and esteemed by the party of which he has been a noble champion to require any words of panegyric from my feeble pen. But suffice it to say, he has done a gallant part; ever ready to grapple, in fierce contest, with the chosen combatant of the opposing political party, upon any and every occasion when duty called, he has uniformly come off crowned with honors for himself and for the glorious whig cause. Truly, may we say, he has proven himself a self-sacrificing whig. Witness him in the last gubernatorial canvass: called to lead the whig phalanx, when older hearts flail declined the field, he came forward, amid the rayless night that overhung his path and did his whole duty in that arduous canvass. There was scarcely a county in the State in which his soul stirring and eloquent voice was not heard. But defeat, as usual, was the consequence. His claims will receive due attention.

Abiel Leonard, of Howard, may be named in connection with others. A lawyer, of long standing in Missouri and justly distinguished for his high legal attainments, he has his numerous friends to press his claims upon the public consideration. He has likewise proven himself worthy of the confidence and support of the whig party, in days gone by. As a speaker of great force and ability, he holds a high rank and as a gentleman of enlarged views and solid scholastic attainments, he towers among the tallest and strongest of his contemporaries.

I close this hasty sketch of eminent whig characters, by mentioning one other in the person of Col. A. W. Donphan, of Clay county. His fame as a successful military captain, has a world-wide celebrity. His overland expedition against New Mexico and Chihuahua, during the recent war, is too well known and appreciated to call for any words of commendation at this time.

As a Lawyer, Citizen, Orator and Statesman, he ranks among the first men of either political party in the State—Retiring and seemingly indifferent to public notoriety of every kind whatsoever, he has been true to the whig faith and has done good service for its advancement.

From the passing review of great names, it will be easy to see that there is quite a galaxy from which we may choose some one to enter the contest at the approaching session of our General Assembly. But mere names are nothing without harmony and concert of action. It is true, our adversaries are now already split up into two or three fragments and it remains to be seen how far they will or can coalesce, when the time for action shall have arrived. At all events, it is certainly not good policy in us to calculate too much upon success, because of the dissensions in the ranks of the hitherto united and harmonious Democracy. We should act as though the breach between them, wide as it surely is, may be healed notwithstanding all their present distractions and bitter animosity.

It is consolatory to think that our prospects of electing a Whig U. States Senator in the place of Col. Benton, are better by far than they have ever been before. But may not these reasonable hopes of ours be destroyed by our own discordant views and conflicting preferences for individualism? Is there not danger that we will resolve ourselves into a petty and contemptible scramble about mere personalities when great and vital political interests are dependent upon our harmonious action, for security and advancement? There is danger from this quarter. If then, we so far mistake the road that is marked out before us as to distract our strength and thus blight our prospects of success, then surely it would seem that defeat must continue to be, as it heretofore has been, a political necessity and the only thing in truth which could adequately reward our infidelity to cherished public interests. But for one, I hope for a better and more promising result.

A CLEAN WHIG.

TREASON.

General Jackson, in his proclamation at the time of the nullification troubles, said: "Their object is disunion, but be not deceived by names. Disunion by armed force is Treason." Judge Colquitt, a member of the Southern Convention from Georgia, in speech made before that Convention, said he would recommend the people of the South to go to building arsenals, moulding cannons, casting balls, drilling men, and preparing to resist by armed force the so called aggressions of the north. There is no treason in all that, is there? Colquitt is a good preacher and a better democrat, and of course he would not do wrong. Not he?—Rogersville Times.

The Printers are a gallant set of boys. The following toast was given at their late banquet in Boston: The Ladies.—Always favorable to a "press" properly conducted.

The following we cut from an exchange paper, and it is worthy of the consideration of those who would act right, and observe properly the Sabbath day. That all can agree in opinion on this subject, we do not pretend to believe, but that an honest and conscientious difference may exist between people equally intelligent and disposed to do right, we can readily suppose. Why not, then, treat it as a subject of grave importance, and act upon the honest and intelligent convictions of the mind? We would not touch this subject further than the enlightened moral and conservative feelings of the community may justify. We eschew bigotry and self-righteousness as much as we do the pretensions of the ignorant and the folly of the profane; but we can respect, and allow to others the right to form their own conclusions; still, in conceding to all this right, we do not concede the propriety of any one individual, or class, sitting in judgement upon the views and conduct of others, so long as their acts are not detrimental to the general peace and proper observance of the day.

Don't be alarmed, reader, we will not write a sermon on this subject, just now.—Republican.
WHAT CONSTITUTES KEEPING THE SABBATH HOLY?—The Mawwoms, the Aminadab Slesks, the hypocrites, and canters of the day; the imbecile misinterpreters and mispractisers of christianity, the men without charity, would have the world believe that the Sabbath day is best observed in sackcloth and ashes—that it is most holily kept by the preaching of damnation to the wicked, upon whom these bigots sit in judgement—by gloomy, despairing miserable aspects, by which they see the outward show of grace. Yet, the birds, sing as joyously on the Sabbath as on any other day when the sun shines gloriously and the flowers lift up their heads and expand themselves to its genial warmth. All nature performs its great functions as on any other day, the sun, moon and stars give their light between them, wide as it surely is, may be healed notwithstanding all their present distractions and bitter animosity.

It is consolatory to think that our prospects of electing a Whig U. States Senator in the place of Col. Benton, are better by far than they have ever been before. But may not these reasonable hopes of ours be destroyed by our own discordant views and conflicting preferences for individualism? Is there not danger that we will resolve ourselves into a petty and contemptible scramble about mere personalities when great and vital political interests are dependent upon our harmonious action, for security and advancement? There is danger from this quarter. If then, we so far mistake the road that is marked out before us as to distract our strength and thus blight our prospects of success, then surely it would seem that defeat must continue to be, as it heretofore has been, a political necessity and the only thing in truth which could adequately reward our infidelity to cherished public interests. But for one, I hope for a better and more promising result.

A CLEAN WHIG.

TREASON.

General Jackson, in his proclamation at the time of the nullification troubles, said: "Their object is disunion, but be not deceived by names. Disunion by armed force is Treason." Judge Colquitt, a member of the Southern Convention from Georgia, in speech made before that Convention, said he would recommend the people of the South to go to building arsenals, moulding cannons, casting balls, drilling men, and preparing to resist by armed force the so called aggressions of the north. There is no treason in all that, is there? Colquitt is a good preacher and a better democrat, and of course he would not do wrong. Not he?—Rogersville Times.

The Printers are a gallant set of boys. The following toast was given at their late banquet in Boston: The Ladies.—Always favorable to a "press" properly conducted.

The following we cut from an exchange paper, and it is worthy of the consideration of those who would act right, and observe properly the Sabbath day. That all can agree in opinion on this subject, we do not pretend to believe, but that an honest and conscientious difference may exist between people equally intelligent and disposed to do right, we can readily suppose. Why not, then, treat it as a subject of grave importance, and act upon the honest and intelligent convictions of the mind? We would not touch this subject further than the enlightened moral and conservative feelings of the community may justify. We eschew bigotry and self-righteousness as much as we do the pretensions of the ignorant and the folly of the profane; but we can respect, and allow to others the right to form their own conclusions; still, in conceding to all this right, we do not concede the propriety of any one individual, or class, sitting in judgement upon the views and conduct of others, so long as their acts are not detrimental to the general peace and proper observance of the day.

Don't be alarmed, reader, we will not write a sermon on this subject, just now.—Republican.
WHAT CONSTITUTES KEEPING THE SABBATH HOLY?—The Mawwoms, the Aminadab Slesks, the hypocrites, and canters of the day; the imbecile misinterpreters and mispractisers of christianity, the men without charity, would have the world believe that the Sabbath day is best observed in sackcloth and ashes—that it is most holily kept by the preaching of damnation to the wicked, upon whom these bigots sit in judgement—by gloomy, despairing miserable aspects, by which they see the outward show of grace. Yet, the birds, sing as joyously on the Sabbath as on any other day when the sun shines gloriously and the flowers lift up their heads and expand themselves to its genial warmth. All nature performs its great functions as on any other day, the sun, moon and stars give their light between them, wide as it surely is, may be healed notwithstanding all their present distractions and bitter animosity.

It is consolatory to think that our prospects of electing a Whig U. States Senator in the place of Col. Benton, are better by far than they have ever been before. But may not these reasonable hopes of ours be destroyed by our own discordant views and conflicting preferences for individualism? Is there not danger that we will resolve ourselves into a petty and contemptible scramble about mere personalities when great and vital political interests are dependent upon our harmonious action, for security and advancement? There is danger from this quarter. If then, we so far mistake the road that is marked out before us as to distract our strength and thus blight our prospects of success, then surely it would seem that defeat must continue to be, as it heretofore has been, a political necessity and the only thing in truth which could adequately reward our infidelity to cherished public interests. But for one, I hope for a better and more promising result.

A CLEAN WHIG.

TREASON.

General Jackson, in his proclamation at the time of the nullification troubles, said: "Their object is disunion, but be not deceived by names. Disunion by armed force is Treason." Judge Colquitt, a member of the Southern Convention from Georgia, in speech made before that Convention, said he would recommend the people of the South to go to building arsenals, moulding cannons, casting balls, drilling men, and preparing to resist by armed force the so called aggressions of the north. There is no treason in all that, is there? Colquitt is a good preacher and a better democrat, and of course he would not do wrong. Not he?—Rogersville Times.

The Printers are a gallant set of boys. The following toast was given at their late banquet in Boston: The Ladies.—Always favorable to a "press" properly conducted.</